DIABLO SWEEPS STATE COWBOY LEVER ACTION SILHOUETTE MATCHES AT HAT CREEK IN BURNEY

Diablo member Walt Butler won the CALIFORNIA STATE SMALL BORE COWBOY LEVER ACTION SILHOUETTE MATCH

Diablo member Dennis Winslow won the CALIFORNIA STATE PISTOL CARTRIDGE COWBOY LEVER ACTION SILHOUETTE MATCH

Kevin Newton and Dave Kieselbach also took home some hardware, and as team "Diablo Refugees" they placed all three days with 3rd on Friday, 2nd on Saturday, and 2nd on Sunday.

The match was held over three days at the Hat Creek Range. Also in attendance was Phil DeSousa and his son Ricki DeSousa. Thursday was the day to practice. Walt, Dave and Dennis camped on site. Otherwise, the guys stayed at the Shasta Pines motel in Burney

These events have been a standard at USI. They are fired with iron sights in the standing position. The Pistol Cartridge (usually a 357) and the Small Bore matches are fired at 40, 50, 80 and 100 meters. The Rifle Cartridge match is usually a 30/30 and the distances are: 50, 100, 150 and 200 meters. The targets are: chickens, pigs, turkeys, and rams. The championship required 2 40 round matches over the course of a day. We always spot for each other to mark the hits. Scoring was provided by the club. The event had a great turn out and the club provided a chicken dinner on Saturday night. Of course, the guys had to go into Burney for a steak dinner on Friday night.

President HCRP Tim Mort said that he is hoping the stats for the 2017 California State Lever Action shoot will appear on the www.hcrpclub.org soon.
