In Memory of Rose Henry

Rose at the NRA Competition

Diablo R&GC members,

It is with great sadness that we say our friend Rose Henry passed away on 10/24/17, she was 62 years young.

She went to the hospital on 10/22/17 with a fever and it turned into a serious infection which she couldn't overcome.

Rose joined Diablo in 2007 shortly after her husband, Bill, passed away. She soon became a DR&GC Life Member

At times throughout her 10 years of membership she served on the Board of Directors, as Social Chair, our Sunshine Committee Chair, and as an Action Pistol Range Officer.

Rose became an avid participant in Action Pistol, NRA Competition shooting, and Indoor Air Gun League. She twice competed at the International Revolver Championships in San Luis Obispo.

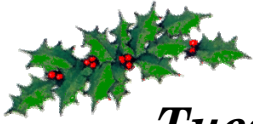

She really enjoyed the camaraderie and welcoming nature of our club and all its members and she will certainly be missed by all who knew her.

Our prayers are with her and her family.
