October 2017 Newsletter

Air Gun Silhouettes Moves to the Action Pistol Range from the MPR TO BE HELD FIRST SUNDAY OF EACH MONTH AT 1 P. M.

Cost is $10.00 for members and $15.00 for Guests. Shooters under the age of 18 accompanied by an adult shoot free

We typically run two Relays so you can shoot rifle in one relay and pistol or other rifle or pistol class in another. You can even shoot a refire, which is a second round of the same class. Our targets are custom built, one-of-a-kind string re-settable silhouettes so the matches tend to go pretty quickly

Have fun and keep your rifle and pistol shooting skills sharp with air gun silhouette. Hope to see you there for a great day of shooting.

Ladies and juniors are encouraged to attend to see and experience what the excitement is all about.

There will be free air tank refills from the club compressor after the match for tanks with a current hydro.

Pictures from the first airgun silhouette match at the APR. Sunday, October 1

4 excellent shooters participated and had a great shoot.

We had a new shooter to silhouette, plus a spectator, that are now hooked on the sport...

Hope to see you there on Sunday.

Impalement Art Tournament

Five of THE BEST IMPALEMENT COMPETITORS participated in the event.

Pa pa Joe Hagen, John Grabowski, Rog Jals, Justin Fox and Andre Lapage.

It was a small group, but there was a lot of talent out there. Rog Jals came down from Redding and Justin Fox from Lakeport. We appreciated their support. they traveled quite a few miles just to participate in the event. I'm sure our very own Ambassador, John Grabowski had invited them to join the event.
