ARTICLE IV - AMENDMENTS

Section 1 Notice of Intent

Notification of intent, and a copy of any proposed amendments to this Constitution or its Bylaws, must be sent to the Board at least twenty one days prior to presenting the amendment at a member meeting as new business. The Board may sponsor proposed amendments and such proposed amendments sponsored by the Board and having received a simple majority vote of the Board will be deemed to have met the notice of intent requirements of this section. The Board shall review the proposed amendment and may present alternate wording to the membership but only to the extent of minor edits for syntax and any direct conflicts with other articles or sections of the Constitution or Bylaws.

Section 2 Notification of Membership

The Secretary shall notify the membership via the Club's newsletter, website, and e-mail announcement at least ten days prior to the regular monthly meeting at which an amendment is to be proposed and discussed.

Section 3 Approval of Amendment

The membership shall vote on the proposed amendment at the next regular member meeting following its proposal and discussion. This Constitution and its Bylaws shall be amended if the proposal is passed by a two-thirds vote, provided a quorum of at least fifteen members are in attendance. Amendments shall become effective immediately upon approval unless a date was specified.

DRAFT

BYLAWS

ARTICLE I - NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Section 1 Eligibility

To be eligible for nomination to any office, a member must have held a valid regular or associate membership for twelve months immediately preceding the nominations and must have attended at least fifty percent of those monthly meetings. Members are restricted from holding elected or appointed office in the Club if they are delegates or officers of other USI member clubs.

Section 2 Nominations

A nomination committee shall be composed of the Sergeant at Arms and two members whom shall be appointed by the President at the April meeting each year. The purpose of the committee shall be to identify members eligible for nomination. The nomination committee shall prepare and present a list of eligible members per Section 1 to the membership at the May meeting. Nominations from the floor shall be made from the list of eligible members at the May meeting. If no nominations are accepted by those that meet the above eligibility criteria, eligibility shall be expanded to all members that have held a valid regular or associate membership for at least one year, and then nominations shall be closed.

Section 3 Elections

Elections shall be held during the June meeting each year, all voting shall be by secret ballot and voter eligibility shall be confirmed by the Sergeant at Arms. Officers shall be elected by a majority of those casting votes and members of the Board shall be elected by a plurality of those casting votes. In the event of a lack of a majority for an officer or a tie vote for an officer or board member, a second ballot shall be cast for that office. If the vote is still tied after a second ballot, the election for that office shall be carried over to the next monthly meeting.

Section 4 Installation of Officers

The new officers and board members shall be installed immediately after the conclusion of the member meeting. In the case of elections carried over beyond the June meeting, the outgoing officer shall hold office until the election is decided. Club records, statements, financial instruments, and all other items pertinent to their office shall be provided within a timely manner of the installation of the new officers.

ARTICLE II – IMPEACHMENT OR EXPULSION OF MEMBERS

Section 1 Impeachment

Any officer or director may be impeached. The impeachment procedure shall be as follows:

- a) A written complaint must be presented to the Board detailing the reasons why an individual should be impeached.
- b) The Board, excluding the officer or director in question, shall consider whether the complaint has sufficient merit to warrant action. The voting shall be by secret ballot and the subject individual shall not have a vote.
- c) If a majority of the Board feels the complaint has merit, the Board shall invite the complainant(s), the officer or director in question, and any witnesses either side wishes to present, to a meeting of the Board. Both sides may present their case, rebuttal and cross-examination if desired. A reasonable effort shall be made to schedule this meeting at a time convenient for all parties.
- d) After presentation of evidence, both parties and their witnesses shall be dismissed and the Board shall consider its action. The Board may impeach the officer or director in question by a two-thirds vote of Board members present and voting. The voting shall be by secret ballot and the subject individual shall not have a vote.
- e) If the officer or director is impeached, they shall have the right of appeal to the general membership. If such an appeal is made, it must be announced at the next monthly meeting and the appeal must be presented at the next monthly meeting following the announcement. The Secretary shall notify the membership at least ten days in advance of the presentation of the appeal in the same manner as outlined in Article IV Section 2 of the Constitution.
- f) The impeached officer or director shall not serve in office until after a successful appeal. The President shall, pursuant to Article III, Section 1, paragraph (a) of the Constitution, appoint a temporary replacement.
- g) The vote to overturn an impeachment shall be by secret ballot. The general membership shall be asked to "sustain" or "overturn" the impeachment and a simple majority vote shall determine the result. No further appeal of the impeachment shall be permitted.

Section 2 Expulsion

Any Member may be expelled from the Club. The expulsion procedure shall be as follows:

- a) A written complaint must be presented to the Board detailing the reasons why an individual should be expelled.
- b) The Board, excluding the individual in question, shall consider whether the complaint has sufficient merit to warrant action. The voting shall be by secret ballot and the subject individual shall not have a vote.
- c) If a majority of the Board feels the complaint has merit, the Board shall invite the complainant(s), the subject individual in question, and any witnesses either side wishes to present, to a meeting of the Board. Both sides may present their case, rebuttal and cross-examination if desired. A reasonable effort shall be made to schedule this meeting at a time convenient for all parties.
- d) After presentation of evidence, both parties and their witnesses shall be dismissed and the Board shall consider its action. The Board may expel the individual in question by a two-thirds vote of Board members present and voting. The voting shall be by secret ballot and the subject individual shall not have a vote.
- e) If the individual is expelled from the Club, they shall have the right of appeal to the general membership. If such an appeal is made, it must be announced at the next monthly meeting and the appeal must be presented at the next monthly meeting following the announcement. The Secretary shall notify the membership at least ten days in advance of the presentation of the appeal in the same manner as outlined in Article IV Section 2 of the Constitution.
- f) The vote to overturn an expulsion shall be by secret ballot. The general membership shall be asked to "sustain" or "overturn" the expulsion and a simple majority vote shall determine the result. No further appeal of the expulsion shall be permitted.

ARTICLE III - DISSOLUTION & DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS

Section 1 Dissolution

All proposals for dissolution shall be in writing and presented to the Board. The proposal must then be approved and signed by no less than a majority of the Board. Upon approval by the Board, all members shall be notified in writing via mailed letter of the proposed dissolution meeting at least 10 days prior to the meeting. Dissolution of this corporation shall require two-thirds majority vote of the regular and associate members at a meeting called for the purpose of voting on dissolution.

Section 2 Distribution

In the event of dissolution, all assets, funds or property, tangible or intangible, belonging to this corporation at the time of dissolution, shall be transferred to United Sportsmen, Inc., to other clubs of United Sportsmen, Inc. or to other non-profit corporations organized with purposes similar to those of the Club. No part of the receipts, earnings, funds, property or any other assets of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to any of the officers, directors or members of this corporation. This corporation shall, however, be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make all reasonable and necessary disbursements of corporate funds in furtherance of any permitted or authorized purposes of this corporation.

ARTICLE IV - CONDUCT OF MONTHLY MEETINGS

Section 1 Order of Business

Monthly meetings shall be conducted as follows:

- a) Call to order
- b) Pledge of allegiance to the flag
- c) Roll call of Officers and Board members
- d) Introduction of guests
- e) Reading of the minutes of the previous monthly meeting
- f) Report by the Treasurer
